'e"Willis Jenkins, Yale University "With characteristic rigor, Rolston proves once again to be a moral explorer par excellence. His new book not only surveys the existing terrain of environmental ethics literature, but it persuasively argues for following a greener, more life-respecting morality; it is an exemplary read for an environmental ethics course." 'e"Ben Dixon, Stephen F. Austin State University "I would recommend Rolston'e(tm)s book for any undergraduate course in environmental ethics, or even for an introductory ethics course with a substantial applied ethical component.
