PICTURING SCHOOL ACTIVITIES (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Picturing School Activities While directing the filming of the educational, vocational, and recreational activities of the country schools of Alameda county, to produce four reels for daily free exhibition in the Palace of Education at the Panama Exposition, I was requested to direct also the taking of artistic photographic views of the best of the county s school buildings, from which types might be selected for the architectural exhibit in the Palace of Education. That experience in scurrying over the county in quest of live pictorial matter is not an adequate excuse, but it is a reason for my intruding upon pages ordinarily consecrated to more conventional discussion of pedagogical subjects. In the long ago, when my trousers were short, I began school and lingered briefly, with my trousers, in the old Lincoln school in Oakland. And then I betook myself and my trousers back into southern California and attended a country school with almost adult Indians, and later a town school where my trousers were daily dusted with more than one thrashing administered by a robust teacher who sought vainly to suppress my whispering loquacity. Remembering what Oakland was in those early days and what the school disciplinary methods were in my boyhood, I have viewed the present school developments of Alameda county with keen interest. Recently I went round to the Lincoln school, my first visit there since the days when part of Oakland east of Lake Merritt was known as the town of Brooklyn, when the lake was all open to the estuary, when a dinky horsecar line ran lonesomely out to Berkeley and its scattered population of less than a thousand...
