If you stop to try and equalise your crotch values, before you know where you are the lilt of the song has picked you up and hustled you along like a bottle in a mill-race. Allegretto grazioso. . poco rit. Blossom by bloa-som, pe-tal by pe-tal. is a delightful example of the composer's cunning. Blossom and petal are both trochees; but there is a subtle difference in the time-duration of the first foot of each. The first syllable of petal has in speech a tendency to drop from its perch a little quicker than that of blossom. That tendency the composer has put for you in black and white. He has taken the very bit out of your mouth, for you wanted to do that yourself! But because petal is a little different from blossom it doesn't follow that blossom...
