Put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the Holy City; and, then, turning from that scene of joy, he quotes the words which God himself proclaimed in sad, rebuking tones: My name continually every day is blasphemed. Young men of Zion, was it our Zion to whom these awakening words were sung? Was it modern Jerusalem, (starving, famine-ravished city that she is) now about to put on her beautiful garments? Was it us, of America, dear reader, upon whom that prophetic lens was focused with such convincing accuracy as to reveal, so far away, this awful sin of continual blasphemy? fear it is true. Whether or not we are the objects of Isaiah's words, we - a number of us at least - are...
