In 1874 he located in Atchison county, Missouri, practically without means. The first eighty acres of his present farm he bought of N. O. Hopkins for 12 per acre--on crop payments. He now owns a splendidly improved farm of 160 acres, in section 16, township 66, range 41, 7 K miles southwest of Westboro. The residence is of the following dimensions: 18x40 ft. , two stories, and 16x18 ft. , 1 stories. The residence is situated in the midst of one of the most beautiful and well-kept lawns we have ever seen. In fact, Mr. Halliday formerly conducted a nursery on this farm, and has a most luxuriant orchard and tastefully kept ornamental and shade trees, shrubbery, flower garden, etc. Mr. Halliday also feeds stock successfully, marketing, annually, On an average, one to two car loads of fat cattle and one...
