In the final of the Canadian amateur championship of 1922, there was an indecent demonstration against a referee because the gallery was ignorant of the rule which prevents a player from lifting a loose impediment more than a club's length from his ball. In this case it was a cigarette box - it might even have been a single cigarette - which Fraser thoughtlessly lifted before playing his ball, not on the putting green. The decision on this occasion caused a big commotion among the gallery, and the demonstration so rattled Fraser's opponent that, after being dormie, he lost the match and the championship.
