The intelligence community has intercepted information suggesting that a large al-Qaeda cell has infiltrated for the purpose of striking just such a blow. Into the crucible of conflict the Department of Homeland Security inserts a hand-picked hunter team, led by FBI Special Agent Price McLean, with orders to identify, locate and stop the terrorists before a catastrophe of unimaginable proportion occurs. Played out against the backdrop of bustling Las Vegas, breathtaking Lake Powell and charming San Francisco, the Hunter One team hopscotches from one cliff-hanging crisis to another, and McLean braces for the final face-to-face confrontation with a master terrorist.
