Magic Trash Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Zack Kopp (illustrator). 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .All Howard Plumber s friends from the bygone Denver punk poetry scene have moved away to popular cities like New York or L.A. during the months of his hospitalization, and all his more recent allies from Vermont s experimental Power Mountain college and graduate school live in locations equally distant. The webzine s fan page on the social network Facebook, which he uses as a bulletin board for newsworthy items, becomes a virtual map of the apparent self contradiction engendered by this transformation, where anything can be proven and nothing is meant to be. Set triply in Howard s life in Denver, his memories of grad school on the East Coast, and the no-man s-everywhere inhabited by his cartoon doppelganger, Dim Jim Driscoll, Sorehead is colored by Howard s...
