Channel View Publishing Plymouth. Spiral bound. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Fishing Boats & Ports of Cornwall: An Alternative Way to Explore Cornwall (2nd Revised edition), Stewart Lenton, Liz Lenton, Stewart Lenton, Like the first edition published in 2006 this completely revised and updated version is still both attractively and practically designed. The concealed spiral binding allows it to remain open at any page in rucksack or on chart table without damage, and yet have a title spine for bookshelf display. Its content is also multipurpose. It has been found useful to tourists, and holiday makers, as well as those with a professional interest. As an illustrated guide to coastal places in Cornwall associated with fishing past and present, it suggests a purposeful way to explore and learn about the Cornish coast; but because it contains a photographic and listed record of the contemporary registered fishing boats to be found in these places it also has a wider usefulness. This ranges on the one hand from a family 'I spy' potential, to a unique photographic record for the historian and a companion for fishing industry support services or an aide for safety/emergency crews on the other. Stewart Lenton came...
