Some stories ended on a definitive note. Others, with room for interpretation. Some stories ended with a well-placed bullet.

Donovan Swan never wanted to be the leader of a group of assassins and spies. He didn't want to be the one to root out conspiracies and stand against powerful forces. The allure was there, but he was a con man at heart, and taking on the role has left his best friend in a coma and on the verge of death while a northern army stands prepared to take him to war.

Now it's personal. The legendary Trajaen Luna, commander of the fierce northerners, is in reality a man known to few as Salem. Former slave turned liberator, he has long railed against the tyranny of unregulated criminals while shouldering mountains of guilt for the acts of violence he has had to commit to maintain peace. When confronted with the existence of the United Coast Organization, a faction that thrives on the murder and exploitation of others through countless cities, he knows in his heart that he is...
